

Education Paths – Indigenous Studies

Here are some examples of universities in British Columbia that offer programs that pertain to our future of employment opportunities that can arise going into treaty.

Our need for people in Trades, Community Services and Public Services and more will open up numerous employment opportunities once treaty is ratified.

University of the Fraser Valley Indigenous Studies

Attainable certificates at UFV:

- ◆ Stó:lō Studies Certificate
- ◆ Indigenous Arts Certificate: Honouring Our Gifts
- ◆ Indigenous Maps, Films, Rights, and Land Claims Certificate
- ◆ Aboriginal Culture and Language Support Diploma
- ◆ Social Services Diploma
- ◆ Certificate in Extended Studies in Social Services—First Nations Option
- ◆ Intermediate Certificate in Halq'eméylem

www.ufv.ca

Simon Fraser University First Nations Studies

Departments offering programs with FNST courses include:

- ◆ Certificate in Literacy Instruction (Faculty of Education)
- ◆ Ethics Certificate (Department of Philosophy)
- ◆ Legal Studies Certificate Program (School of Criminology)
- ◆ Social Justice Certificate Program (Department of Sociology/Anthropology)
- ◆ Environmental Literacy Certificate—Faculty of Environment
- ◆ Counselling and Human Development Post Baccalaureate Diploma Program—Faculty of Education

www.sfu.ca

UBC Vancouver Campus First Nations Studies Program (FNSP)

What Can You Do with a FNSP Degree?

- ◆ Community-based researcher
- ◆ University-based researcher
- ◆ Community dev. worker
- ◆ Inter-governmental officer
- ◆ Community-industry liaison
- ◆ Cultural resource manager
- ◆ Rural development officer
- ◆ Art conservator/technician
- ◆ Multiculturalism educator
- ◆ Impact assessment officer
- ◆ Youth worker
- ◆ Archaeological fieldworker
- ◆ Cultural artifact specialist Documentary writer/director/producer
- ◆ Employment equity officer
- ◆ Public administration
- ◆ Community services analyst
- ◆ Community program coordinator
- ◆ Tourism consultant
- ◆ Public policy analyst
- ◆ Media consultant
- ◆ Student/academic advisor
- ◆ Museum curator
- ◆ Administrative assistant (Aboriginal Affairs)
- ◆ Community services assistant
- ◆ Community support worker
- ◆ Arts and heritage advisor Education resource specialist
- ◆ Environmental assessment officer
- ◆ Resource management specialist

www.ubc.ca